FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

INSTRUCTIONS:

➤ Completing the Application:

If you are completing this form by hand, please use a black pen and write in BLOCK CAPITALS.

If you are completing the form electronically, please complete all gray-shaded fields. Use the "tab" key to move from field to field.

Be sure to provide complete information. Applications that lack sufficient information may not be considered.

➤ Supporting documentation:

All applications for financial aid must be accompanied by RECENT and OFFICIAL documentation verifying the income and property stated by:

- Income Tax Return Document
- Property Declaration Form (E9)

Applications without appropriate supporting documentations will not be considered.

Documents must be submitted in English or Greek. Translations should be authenticated.

➤ Monetary Amounts, Exchange Rates & Source:

All monetary amounts should be provided in euro or US dollars (be sure to specify which), using the official exchange rates for the date the application is signed. Provide exchange rate information (including source) at the bottom of the application. The exchange rate must be based on accepted commercial bank rates for the date the application is signed.

➤ Additional Information:

Feel free to provide supplemental information on a separate sheet of paper (in English). Information submitted to the College is kept strictly confidential, regardless of whether the applicant is accepted or not.

NOTE: Submission of a Financial Aid Application does not guarantee that the applicant will receive aid. All financial aid decisions are based on the availability of funds as well as the demonstrated need and academic potential of applicants.
